Notes for Employees

You must complete this form and submit it to your employer whether or not you choose to contribute for the period of leave.

If you choose not to contribute:

Your decision not to contribute for the period of leave cannot be revoked once your employer has received your decision.

If you choose to contribute:

Your contributions will be based on your salary immediately before your leave began. Your employer will also contribute the employer portion for the leave on your behalf.

Important Timeframes:

Your payments must begin within 90 calendar days of your leave end date. If you use accumulated vacation time between the leave end date and your return to work this timeframe is not extended. After the 90 days has passed, you no longer have the option to contribute.

When electing to contribute through payroll deductions using the maximum pay period allowed:

You have the equivalent of the length of your leave, or until December 31 the year after your leave ends (whichever is shorter), to repay your contributions for the period of your leave.

For further details please refer to your PEPP Member Guide or the PEPP Talk on Leave of Absence available at www.peba.gov.sk.ca

Maximum Leaves of Absence

The Income Tax Act, Canada limits the total amount of leave for which an employee may make contributions. Employees may contribute for a maximum of five years of accumulated leaves of absence. In the case of maternity or paternity leaves, the maximum is increased by an additional three years (eight years in total). There are no rules regarding a minimum period for a leave of absence.
